

GDPR PRIVACY NOTICE

This document refers to personal data, which is defined as information concerning any living person (a natural person who hereafter will be called the Data Subject) that is not already in the public domain.

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which is EU wide and far more extensive than its predecessor the Data Protection Act, along with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR), seek to protect and enhance the rights of EU data subjects. These rights cover the safeguarding of personal data, protection against the unlawful processing of personal data and the unrestricted movement of personal data within the EU and its storage within the EEA.

1 - Stow Physio Ltd, trading as Stow Physio at Bourton, based at Unit 4 Hawthorne Court, Bourton Industrial park, Bourton on the Water GL54 2HQ and listed on our website www.stowphysio.com which hereafter for the purposes of this document will be referred to as the Clinic, is pleased to provide the following information:

2 - Who we are

We diagnose and treat health conditions. Treatments are carried out under guidelines set out by the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy. The Clinic is regulated by the Health and Care Professions Council. The practice may also provide other treatments, about which our staff will be pleased to provide more details.

3 - Personal Data

For the purposes of providing treatment, the Clinic is legally required to obtain detailed medical information and record all treatment that is carried out. We will only collect what is relevant and necessary for your treatment. We will make notes which may include details concerning your medication, treatment and other issues affecting your health.

This data is always held securely on our electronic record keeping system, which is password protected and all laptops are password protected. It is not shared with anyone not involved in your treatment, although for data storage purposes it may be handled by pre-vetted staff.

In making initial contact with the Clinic you consent to the Clinic holding such personnel data. Being able to process your personal data it is a condition of any treatment, and so by attending the clinic you are giving your explicit consent to allow the Clinic to document and process your personal medical data. Contact details provided by you such as telephone numbers, email addresses, postal addresses may be used to remind you of future appointments and provide reports or other information concerning your treatment. As part of our obligations as primary healthcare practitioners there may be circumstances related to your treatment, on-going care or medical diagnosis that will require the sharing of your medical records with other healthcare practitioners e.g GPs, consultants, surgeons and/or medical insurance companies.

You may withdraw consent by simply informing us, however this will mean we are unable to continue to treat you.

The clinic's website uses cookies, which is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. <http://www.stowphysio.com> uses cookies to help the Clinic to identify and track visitors and their website access preferences. The Clinic's website visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using the Clinic's website.

We can also collect your Name, Email Address, Phone Number via our online booking form and contact form on our website. Our legal base for collecting this information will be your consent expressed when you voluntarily and on your own initiative decided to contact us by using these forms. The purpose of this information will be only to make an appointment or to identify who wants to contact us so to be able to respond.

The Clinic will only collect the information needed so that we can provide you with the services you require, the business does not sell or broker your data.

4 - Legal basis for processing any personal data

To meet our legal obligations to keep treatment records, consent for which is implied when making an appointment with the clinic

5 - Legitimate interests pursued by the Clinic

To allow the clinic to contact you regarding booked appointment or for invoicing or receipt purposes.

6 – Consent

Through agreeing to treatment you are consenting to the Clinic processing your personal data for the purposes outlined. You can withdraw consent at any time by using the postal, email address or telephone number provided at the end of this Privacy Notice. This will however preclude you from treatment at the clinic

7 – Disclosure

The Clinic will keep your personal information safe and secure, only administrative and clinical staff engaged in providing your treatment will have access to your patient records. All electronic records are on secure sites that are password protected. Any paper documents are stored in a locked office inside the building that is locked whenever staff are not on site.

The clinic will not disclose your Personal Information unless compelled to, in order to meet legal obligations, regulations or valid governmental requests. The practice may also enforce its Terms and Conditions, including investigating potential violations of its Terms and Conditions to detect, prevent or mitigate fraud or security or technical issues; or to protect against imminent harm to the rights, property or safety of its staff.

8 - Retention Policy

The Clinic will process personal data during the duration of any treatment and will continue to store only the personal data needed for eight years after the contract has expired to meet any legal obligations. After eight years all personal data will be deleted, unless basic information needs to be retained by us to meet our future obligations to you, such as erasure details. Records concerning minors who have received treatment will be retained until the child has reached the age of 25.

9 - Data storage

All Data is held in the United Kingdom. The Clinic does not store personal data outside the EEA. All data is stored on a password protected system and all clinic computers are also password protected. Any hard copies of personnel information is stored within the locked office and the clinic is also locked when empty.

10 - Your rights as a data subject

At any point whilst the Clinic is in possession of, or processing your personal data, all data subjects have the following rights:

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply you have a right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.
- Right to object to automated processing, including profiling – you also have the right not to be subject to the legal effects of automated processing or profiling.

In the unlikely event that the Clinic refuses your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why, which you have the right to legally challenge. At your request the Clinic can confirm what information it holds about you and how it is processed.

11 - You can request the following information:

- The contact details of the person or organisation (the Clinic) that has determined how and why to process your data.
- Contact details of our data protection officer, that being Lucy Walmsley telephone number 01451 822660, or email info@stowphysio.com
- The purpose of the processing as well as the legal basis for processing.
- If the processing is based on the legitimate interests of the Clinic and information about these interests.
- The categories of personal data collected, stored and processed.
- Recipient(s) or categories of recipients that the data is/will be disclosed to.
- How long the data will be stored.
- Details of your rights to correct, erasure, restrict or object to such processing.
- Information about your right to withdraw consent at any time.
- How to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority (ICO).
- Whether the provision of personal data is a statutory or contractual requirement, or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, as well as whether you are obliged to provide the personal data and the possible consequences of failing to provide such data.
- The source of personal data if it wasn't collected directly from you.
- Any details and information of automated decision making, such as profiling, and any meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and expected consequences of such processing.

12 - To access what personal data is held, identification will be required

The Clinic will accept the following forms of identification (ID) when information on your personal data is requested: a copy of your driving licence, passport, birth certificate and a utility bill not older than three months. A minimum of one piece of photographic ID listed above and a supporting document is required. If the Clinic is dissatisfied with the quality, further information may be sought before personal data can be released. All requests should be made by phoning 01451 822660 and asking for the practice manager.

13 - Information Recording

We may keep copies or recordings of any correspondence you have between us, including emails, telephone calls, consultations, CCTV and voice recordings. This may be used for quality and training purposes, and to prevent criminal behaviour.

14 - Complaints

In the event that you wish to make a complaint about how your personal data is being processed by the Clinic you have the right to complain to us. If you do not get a response within 30 days, you can complain to the ICO. The details for each of these contacts are:

Lucy Walmsley c/o Stow Physio at Bourton

ICO

Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF Telephone +44 (0) 303 123 1113

